

Peggy Layne

Peggy Layne has been a resident of Hampton Roads for over 35 years (with a short time in Richmond) and considers herself a “professional volunteer.” After a 40-year career with Dominion Energy, she now dedicates her energy and diverse business experience to work for organizations that make her community a better place to live. While a Virginia Beach resident, Peggy was a founding member of the Tidewater Community College Women’s Center as well as a member of the college’s Educational Foundation board, chaired the Virginia Beach 2040 Vision Committee, and was a board member for Virginia Musical Theater. As a member of the 2017 CIVIC Class, Peggy worked on the “megaregion” initiative and continues this work serving on the RVA-757 Connects Executive Committee. She has been a State Board for Community Colleges member since 2017 holding the positions of committee chair, Vice-Chair, and currently is the Chair. She led the Citizens’ Advisory Council on the Furnishing and Interpretation of the Executive Mansion from 2019-2022. Peggy supports An Achievable Dream (AAD), first on the AAD-Virginia Beach board, and now as a member of the AAD-Henrico County board. Upon her return to Hampton Roads, Peggy joined Women United of the United Way of South Hampton Roads and is 10-for-10 Council member. Recently, Peggy has been appointed a Commissioner with the Chesapeake Redevelopment and Housing Authority. Peggy has a BS in Business Management from George Mason University and a Masters in Human Resource Development from George Washington University. She and her husband, Aubrey, live in Chesapeake, Va and enjoy spending time in the Outer Banks, NC.
